📍 The Middle East

From the cedars of Lebanon to the deserts of Arabia, this land offers unparalleled opportunities to make an impact that could influence the rest of the Muslim world.

Facts About the Region

- The birthplace of Islam and the source of much of its funding
- Location of world's oldest continuously inhabited cities
- A region with several rapidly modernizing economies
- Home to a growing refugee population
- A land of diverse career options for many skill sets and passions

Opportunities: business, engineering, finance, refugee ministry, fitness training, trauma counseling, and more!

📍 North Africa

Across the Sahara to the western Maghreb—which means “place where the sun sets”—North Africa boasts legendary landscapes and a surprising spiritual history.

Facts About the Region

- One of the centers of the early church
- Home to Arabic, Berber, English, Spanish, and French speakers
- In need of entrepreneurs to help create jobs for young adults
- Wide-open to digital and social media outreach strategies
- Spiritually open as hearts grow jaded with the status quo

Opportunities: social media, English teaching, tourism, sports, economic development, and more!

📍 Southwest Asia

Dominated by complex socio-political dynamics, this region is home to ancient civilizations, stunning landscapes, and endlessly hospitable people.

Facts About the Region

- Rich in literary and poetic traditions
- Home to K2, the world's second-highest mountain
- In need of creative solutions to water scarcity
- Marked by widespread disillusionment with Islam
- An embattled land in desperate need of hope

Opportunities: relief/development, public health, engineering, education, business, manufacturing, and more!

📍 Sub-Saharan Africa

Stretching across vast landscapes, Sub-Saharan Africa is made up of expressive, tenacious, and friendly people who have survived eras of conflict and famine.

Facts About the Region

- Dominated by vast semi-arid grasslands called the Sahel
- Full of opportunities to engage in social justice issues
- A region of creative, resourceful people
- Home to several nomadic groups with no Gospel access
- In need of workers to live and serve among the urban poor

Opportunities: community development, business training, social justice, IT, public health, and more!

South Asia

With its dazzling diversity and trailblazing adventure, South Asia is the homeland of famously welcoming people who are always ready to make instant friends.

Facts About the Region

- A captivating fusion of colors, languages, and flavors
- The region with the world's largest population of Muslims
- Known for its vibrant street food culture
- Economically one of the poorest regions of the world
- Home to a dizzying array of spiritual traditions

Opportunities: poverty alleviation, business, environmental conservation, equipping local churches, and more!

Central Asia/Caucasus

Combining breathtaking mountain scenery, a history of epic conquests, and the legendary Silk Road, this land is one of the world's most culturally diverse regions.

Facts About the Region

- Rich with untapped oil and natural gas
- Home to dozens of people groups untouched by the Gospel
- A vast terrain following the Silk Road from Asia to Europe
- Linguistically diverse with 100+ languages
- Marked by traditions of deep-rooted hospitality

Opportunities: natural resource management, agriculture, linguistics, media/communications, and more!

Southeast Asia

With its unlimited adventures, perpetual smiles, and more than 10,000 islands, this is a famously beautiful region with a dynamic spiritual landscape.

Facts About the Region

- A global producer of cinnamon, coconut oil, rice, and coffee
- Known for its kind, patient, and good-humored people
- A land of 50+ spoken languages
- Economically dependent on small, family-owned farms
- A region where Islamic practice blends with animist beliefs

Opportunities: event management, agriculture, education, anthropology, equipping local churches, and more!

Turkey/Balkans

A crossroads of cultures, this region of mountains and seas has held strategic importance throughout ages of empires, conquests, and ethnic divides.

Facts About the Region

- The cradle of the early Christian church
- A land bridge between Europe, Africa, and Asia
- Open to Western lifestyles given its proximity to Europe
- Home to the largest population of refugees in the world
- A divided land in need of ethnic and spiritual healing

Opportunities: refugee ministry, tourism, sports, photography/media, trauma counseling, and more!
